

You have the right to Socio-Economic Rights,

Food Security

Health

Education

Housing

Basic Public Utilities

Transport

Decent Work

Living Wage

Electricity is one of the basic necessities of life

SOCIO-ECONOMIC RIGHTS

Zimbabwe Congress of Trade Unions
Chester House
88 Speke Avenue
P.O. Box 3549, HARARE

Phone: 793093 / 794742 / 794702

Fax: (263) - 4—728484

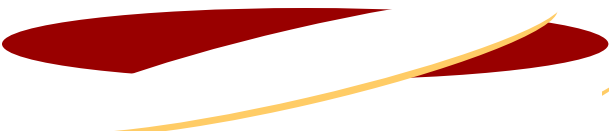

E-mail: info@zctu.co.zw

SOCIO-ECONOMIC RIGHTS

Know your Rights !!!!!

ZCTU Women and Gender Department

Have you ever???????

- ◆ Slept on a hungry stomach?
- ◆ Been sick, driven to the hospital and found that you can not afford to pay the deposit, later on the medication?
- ◆ Failed to take your child to school because you can not afford the school fees?
- ◆ Gone for several weeks without electricity, sometimes water or both at the same time?
- ◆ Gone to an extent of digging a hole on your backyard to get rid of refuse?
- ◆ Walked on foot to your workplace because transport is not available or not affordable?
- ◆ Worked in dangerous conditions without protective clothing?
- ◆ Earned a wage that could not even sustain you and your family?

Food Security

You have the right to have access to affordable food and the government should be accountable if it fails to uphold this right.

Health

You have the right to attain the highest possible level of healthcare as well as affordable and available medication

Education

It is an economic right that you as a citizen be entitled to the quality of education in line with the demands of the economy.

Housing

You have the right to decent accommodation that is available, affordable and satisfactory.

Basic Public Utilities

(Electricity, Water & Sanitation)

Public utilities are basic necessities of life hence they are people's socio-economic rights that ought to be prioritised.

Transport

You have the right to reliable and efficient transport; hence the government has a mandate to ensure that public transport is available and affordable for all.

Decent Work

You have the right to obtain decent and productive work, in conditions of freedom, equity, security and human dignity.

You have rights at work.

Living Wage

You have the right to a living wage, one that can enable an average family to meet their basic requirements.

Zimbabwe Congress of Trade Unions

Chester House

88 Speke Avenue

P.O. Box 3549, HARARE

Phone: 793093 / 794742 / 794702

Fax: (263) - 4-728484

E-mail: info@zctu.co.zw